Los Reptiles mesozoicos del registro español J. L. Sanz,1990 Cuando los ibicencos evocan su pasado dividen el tiempo de la Historia en ahora y en antes del turismo. La llegada de millones de turistas a Ibiza ha transformado, por completo, la idílica existencia insular abriéndola, definitivamente, a la modernidad.Desde hace veinte años, Danielle Rozenberg observa desde la propia Ibiza, las mutaciones que han ido acaeciendo al filo de los tiempos. A través de una minuciosa descripción del cambio nos invita a reflexionar sobre las distintas posibilidades que se abren ante la apuesta turística.

santidad, como formas de religiosidad típicamente femeninas en castilla la nueva, entre los siglos xiv y xvii. Esta incursión obedece a una búsqueda consciente por parte de las mujeres de unas vivencias y unos espacios alternativos a aquellos a los que se veían confinadas por el sistema de géneros de la época. Con este objetivo se estudian las características y la evolución de los beaterios, y en segundo lugar se analizan con detenimiento casos de mujeres que tuvieron reputación de santas.

Andean States and the Resource Curse Gerardo Damonte,Bettina Schorr,2021-12-02 This volume explores institutional change and performance in the resource-rich Andean countries during the last resource boom and in the early post-boom years. The latest global commodity boom has profoundly marked the face of the resource-rich Andean region, significantly contributing to economic growth and notable reductions of poverty and income inequality. The boom also constituted a period of important institutional change, with these new institutions sharing the potential of preventing or mitigating the maladies extractive economies tend to suffer from, generally denominated as the “resource curse”. This volume explores these institutional changes in the Andean region to identify the factors that have shaped their emergence and to assess their performance. The interdisciplinary and comparative perspective of the chapters in this book provide fine-grained analyses of different new institutions introduced in the Andean countries and discusses their findings in the light of the resource curse approach. They argue that institutional change and performance depend upon a much larger set of factors than those generally identified by the resource curse literature. Different, domestic and external, economic, political and cultural factors such as ideological positions of decision-makers, international pressure or informal practices have shaped institutional dynamics in the region. Altogether, these findings emphasize the importance of nuanced and contextualized analysis to better understand institutional dynamics in the context of extractive economies. This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of the extractive industries, natural resource management, political economics, Latin American studies and sustainable development.
