Shadows of Forgotten Ancestors Carl Sagan, Ann Druyan, 2011-07-06 NATIONAL BESTSELLER • “Exciting and provocative . . . A tour de force of a book that begs to be seen as well as to be read.”—The Washington Post Book World
World renowned scientist Carl Sagan and acclaimed author Ann Druyan have written a Roots for the human species, a lucid and riveting account of how humans got to be the way we are. Shadows of Forgotten Ancestors is a thrilling saga that starts with the origin of the Earth. It shows with humor and drama that many of our key traits—self-awareness, technology, family ties, submission to authority, hatred for those a little different from ourselves, reason, and ethics—are rooted in the deep past, and illuminated by our kinship with other animals. Sagan and Druyan conduct a breathtaking journey through space and time, zeroing in on critical turning points in evolutionary history, and tracing the origins of sex, altruism, violence, rape, and dominance. Their book culminates in a stunningly original examination of the connection between primate and human traits. Astonishing in its scope, brilliant in its insights, and an absolutely compelling read, Shadows of Forgotten Ancestors is a triumph of popular science.

¿Por qué la gente fuma? Gustavo Chiozza,2016-11-30 A lo largo de la historia, fumar ha sido considerado de muy diversas maneras: como un acto mágico, como una práctica saludable, como algo placentero, como una dependencia esclavizante, como un vicio reprobable, como un hábito dañino o como una peligrosa epidemia a erradicar. ¿Por qué se le han otorgado sentidos tan distintos y opuestos? Adorado o rechazado, beneficioso o perjudicial, el tabaco nunca fue algo indiferente para el hombre. Si bien en nuestros días predomina el rechazo, el hábito de fumar ocupa una parte importante de la vida de muchísimas personas. No sólo son muchos los que viven fumando; también son muchos los que viven dejando de fumar; y muchos también los que viven intentando que otros no fumen. ¿Qué misteriosa cualidad tiene el acto de fumar que lo vuelve tan importante para tantas personas? Para comprender por qué la gente fuma, el autor ilumina un aspecto que ha pasado desapercibido: la importancia que tiene el fuego y, por extensión, el humo en el complejo ritual del acto de fumar. El camino recorrido le permite formular también una hipótesis para comprender lo que motiva, más allá de las verdades que aduce la razón, el rechazo afectivo hacia el fumador, tan vigente en nuestros días. Con sus reflexiones, Gustavo Chiozza hace una contribución invaluable acerca de un acto cotidiano presente entre nosotros desde hace miles de años, pero también sobre los modos de pensar nuestra vida y nuestra salud; acaso una forma de comprender el valor de la libertad para elegir la vida que queremos hacer.

Before Boas Han F. Vermeulen,2015-07 The history of anthropology has been written from multiple viewpoints, often from perspectives of gender, nationality, theory, or politics. Before Boas delves deeper into issues concerning anthropology's academic origins to present a groundbreaking study that reveals how ethnography and ethnology originated during the eighteenth rather than the nineteenth century, developing parallel to anthropology, or the natural history of man. Han F. Vermeulen explores primary and secondary sources from Russia, Germany, Austria, the United States, the Netherlands, Hungary, the Czech Republic, Slovakia, France, and Great Britain in tracing how ethnography originated as field research by German-speaking historians and naturalists in Siberia (Russia) during the 1730s and 1740s, was generalized as ethnology by scholars in Göttingen (Germany) and Vienna (Austria) during the 1770s and 1780s, and was subsequently adopted by researchers in other countries. Before Boas argues that anthropology and ethnology were separate sciences during the Age of Reason, studying racial and ethnic diversity, respectively. Ethnography and ethnology focused not on other cultures but on all peoples of all eras. Following G. W. Leibniz, researchers in these fields categorized peoples primarily according to their languages. Franz Boas professionalized the holistic study of anthropology from the 1880s into the twentieth century.

Communication with Extraterrestrial Intelligence (CETI) Carl Sagan, 1973 The first international conference on the problem of extraterrestrial civilizations, and contact with them, was held in September 1971 in Soviet Armenia. The conference was a gathering of specialists working in a wide variety of fields—astronomy, physics, radiophysics, computer science and technology, chemistry, biology, linguistics, archaeology, anthropology, sociology, and history—and included many scientists whose reputations are worldwide. For example, Freeman Dyson, Philip Morrison, and Charles Townes were among the American participants; their Russian counterparts were of comparable distinction. The conference was jointly organized by the U.S. National Academy of Sciences (with assistance from the U.S. National Science Foundation) and the U.S.S.R. Academy of Sciences. Scientists from several other countries also participated. Many aspects of the problem of extraterrestrial civilizations were discussed in detail, and these discussions are fully presented in this book. Particular attention is devoted to the following questions: the plurality of planetary systems in the universe, the origin of life on Earth, the possibility of life arising on cosmic bodies, the origin and evolution of intelligence, the origin and development of technological civilizations, problems in searching for intelligent signals or for evidence of astroengineering activities, and the problems and possible consequences of establishing contact with extraterrestrial civilizations.

Comet Carl Sagan, Ann Druyan, 2011-07-06 What are these graceful visitors to our skies? We now know that they bring both life and death and teach us about our origins. Comet begins with a breathtaking journey through space astride a comet. Pulitzer Prize-winning astronomer Carl Sagan, author of Cosmos and Contact, and writer Ann Druyan explore the origin, nature, and future of comets, and the exotic myths and portents attached to them. The authors show how comets have spurred some of the great discoveries in the history of science and raise intriguing questions about these brilliant visitors from the interstellar dark. Were the fates of the dinosaurs and the origins of humans tied to the wanderings of a comet? Are comets the building blocks from which worlds are formed? Lavishly illustrated with photographs and specially commissioned full-color paintings, Comet is an enthralling adventure, indispensable for anyone who has ever gazed up at the heavens and wondered why. Praise for Comet Simply the best. —The Times of London Fascinating, evocative, inspiring. —The Washington Post Comet humanizes science. A beautiful, interesting book. —United Press International Masterful . . . science, poetry, and imagination. —The Atlanta Journal & Constitution

The Demon-haunted World Carl Sagan,1997 Carl Sagan demonstrates how scientific thinking is necessary to safeguard our democratic institutions and our technical civilization. The book debunks the ideas of alien abduction, mediums and faith healers, and refutes the argument that science destroys spirituality
