The Conquest of the Last Maya Kingdom Grant D. Jones, 1998 On March 13, 1697, Spanish troops from Yucatán attacked and occupied Nojpeten, the capital of the Maya people known as Itzas, the inhabitants of the last unconquered native New World kingdom. This political and ritual center--located on a small island in a lake in the tropical forests of northern Guatemala--was densely covered with temples, royal palaces, and thatched houses, and its capture represented a decisive moment in the final chapter of the Spanish conquest of the Mayas. The capture of Nojpeten climaxed more than two years of preparation by the Spaniards, after efforts by the military forces and Franciscan missionaries to negotiate a peaceful surrender with the Itzas had been rejected by the Itza ruling council and its ruler Ajaw Kan Ek'. The conquest, far from being final, initiated years of continued struggle between Yucatecan and Guatemalan Spaniards and native Maya groups for control over the surrounding forests. Despite protracted resistance from the native inhabitants, thousands of them were forced to move into mission towns, though in 1704 the Mayas staged an abortive and bloody rebellion that threatened to recapture Nojpeten from the Spaniards. The first complete account of the conquest of the Itzas to appear since 1701, this book details the layers of political intrigue and action that characterized every aspect of the conquest and its aftermath. The author critically reexamines the extensive documentation left by the Spaniards, presenting much new information on Maya political and social organization and Spanish military and diplomatic strategy. This is not only one of the most detailed studies of any Spanish conquest in the Americas but also one of the most comprehensive reconstructions of an independent Maya kingdom in the history of Maya studies. In presenting the story of the Itzas, the author also reveals much about neighboring lowland Maya groups with whom the Itzas interacted, often violently.

Decolonizing the Map James R. Akerman, 2017-06-16 Almost universally, newly independent states make the production of new maps and atlases affirming their independence and identity a top priority, but the processes and practices by which previously colonized peoples become more engaged or re-engaged in mapping their own territories are rarely straightforward. This collection explores the relationship between mapping and decolonization while engaging recent theoretical debates about the nature of decolonization itself. The essays, originally delivered as the 2010 Kenneth Nebenzahl Jr. Lectures in the History of Cartography at the Newberry Library, encompass more than two centuries (from the late eighteenth through the twentieth) and three continents (Latin America, Africa, and Asia). Topics range from mapping and national identity in late colonial Mexico to the enduring crisis created by the partition of British India and the persistence of racial prejudices and the racialized organization of space in apartheid and postapartheid South Africa.

Atlas ilustrado de los pueblos de indios, Nueva España, 1800 Dorothy Tanck de Estrada, 2006-11-21 El propósito de este Atlas es determinar y ubicar en mapas los pueblos de indios que existían en 1800 dentro del espacio geográfico de las intendencias de la Nueva España. Con él se espera que, al ver los pueblos de indios esparcidos en todo el territorio virreinal, el lector no sólo encuentre información y datos interesantes acerca del pasado, sino que le surjan nuevas preguntas, interpretaciones e inquietudes respecto del desarrollo local, regional y nacional de ayer y hoy. Los mapas de los pueblos permiten apreciar la presencia indígena tan ampliamente distribuida y organizada durante 300 años de la historia mexicana. También puede conocerse que la mayoría de los pueblos de indios estaban constituidos en sitios que habían existido por cientos de años antes de la llegada de los españoles. Con la localización de casi 4,500 pueblos de indios, se intenta promover el interés del lector en conocer más sobre las raíces históricas y culturales de la sociedad actual. El Atlas presenta 83 mapas originales, preparados con programas computacionales, en los cuales se ubican los 4,468 pueblos de indios que existían en 1800, de Sonora en el norte a Yucatán el sur. Contiene 53 fotografías de mapas del siglo XVIII de los pueblos de indios de archivos mexicanos y españoles. Asimismo incluye una introducción histórica ilustrada y un ensayo sobre la construcción de los mapas. El Índice presenta datos sobre cada pueblo: nombre, santo patrón, intendencia, subdelegación, longitud, latitud, altitud, número de habitantes indios (en 3,190 de los 4,468 pueblos) y el número de página del mapa correspondiente. Se incluye un disco compacto interactivo del Índice.
