Yvain Chrétien de Troyes,1987-09-10 The twelfth-century French poet Chrétien de Troyes is a major figure in European literature. His courtly romances fathered the Arthurian tradition and influenced countless other poets in England as well as on the continent. Yet because of the difficulty of capturing his swift-moving style in translation, English-speaking audiences are largely unfamiliar with the pleasures of reading his poems. Now, for the first time, an experienced translator of medieval verse who is himself a poet provides a translation of Chrétien's major poem, Yvain, in verse that fully and satisfyingly captures the movement, the sense, and the spirit of the Old French original. Yvain is a courtly romance with a moral tenor; it is ironic and sometimes bawdy; the poetry is crisp and vivid. In addition, the psychological and the socio-historical perceptions of the poem are of profound literary and historical importance, for it evokes the emotions and the values of a flourishing, vibrant medieval past.

Kumba Africa Sampson Ejike Odum,2020-11-03 'KUMBA AFRICA', is a compilation of African Short Stories written as fiction by Sampson Ejike Odum, nostalgically taking our memory back several thousands of years ago in Africa, reminding us about our past heritage. It digs deep into the traditional life style of the Africans of old, their beliefs, their leadership, their courage, their culture, their wars, their defeat and their victories long before the emergence of the white man on the soil of Africa. As a talented writer of rich resource and superior creativity, armed with in-depth knowledge of different cultures and traditions in Africa, the Author throws light on the rich cultural heritage of the people of Africa when civilization was yet unknown to the people. The book reminds the readers that the Africans of old kept their pride and still enjoyed their own lives. They celebrated victories when wars were won, enjoyed their New Yam festivals and villages engaged themselves in seasonal wrestling contest etc; Early morning during Harmattan season, they gathered firewood and made fire inside their small huts to hit up their bodies from the chilling cold of the Harmattan. That was the Africa of old we will always remember. In Africa today, the story has changed. The people now enjoy civilized cultures made possible by the influence of the white man through his scientific and technological process. Yet there are some uncivilized places in Africa whose people haven't tested or felt the impact of civilization. These people still maintain their ancient traditions and culture. In everything, we believe that days when people paraded barefooted in Africa to the swamp to tap palm wine and fetch firewood from there farms are almost fading away. The huts are now gradually been replaced with houses built of blocks and beautiful roofs. Thanks to modern civilization. Donkeys and camels are no longer used for carrying heavy loads for merchants. They are now been replaced by heavy trucks and lorries. African traditional methods of healing are now been substituted by hospitals. In all these, I will always love and remember Africa, the home of my birth and must respect her cultures and traditions as an AFRICAN AUTHOR.

Gheorghiu Amaury d' Esneval,2003 A un journaliste qui l'interrogeait en 1949 sur l'authenticité de son célèbre roman La 25e heure, Virgil Gheorghiu répond de façon saisissante : La plupart des faits rapportés par mon livre sont recopiés du réel. Cette forte expression montre à quel point l'auteur est proche de ses personnages. A travers eux, il dit non à l'asservissement, il prend le risque de dénoncer l'idéologie dominante. On peut dire que, avec La 25e heure, l'écrivain entre en dissidence. On aura beau le piétiner, le calomnier-durant quarante ans de combats pour la liberté -, il ne cessera de témoigner en faveur de l'humilié et de l'offensé. L'aboutissement de cette lutte se situe peu après la chute du mur de Berlin. Le 13 novembre 1989, sur Antenne 2, il sera donné à Virgil Gheorghiu de réclamer avec foi et énergie l'éviction du criminel régime des Ceaucescu... Disparu prématurément en 1992, il n'a pas eu le temps d'écrire le troisième volume de ses Mémoires. Grâce à l'inventaire et au récolement des documents - souvenirs de voyage, coupures de presse, photographies -, ce Gheorghiu Qui suis-je ?) s'efforce, dans une large mesure, de combler cette lacune. Il offre, pour la première fois, une synthèse de la vie d'un poète, doublé d'un homme d'action, témoin d'une rare clairvoyance des divagations du XXe siècle. Au cadran de l'Histoire, à l'horloge du cœur, il a perçu les battements les plus légers, il a entendu tinter l'heure critique, l'heure de détresse, l'heure en surplus...

Life With Mother Clarence Day, 2021-01-01 'Life With Mother' is a humorous autobiographical book of stories compiled in 1935 by American author and cartoonist Clarence Day Jr. He wrote humorously about his family and life. Most of the chapters of this book were published before Clarence's death, but some were still in manuscript. These had to be sorted carefully because he had a habit of writing on whatever scrap of paper was handy--backs of envelopes, tax memoranda, or small pads of paper which he could hold in his hands on days when they were too lame for the big ones. -Editor's Note

Charles Bukowski Charles Bukowski, Fernanda Pivano, 2000 Cultural Writing. Interviews. Noted Italian critic, translator, and author Fernanda Pivano, came to the United States in 1980 to interview one of the world's singular writers, Charles Bukowski. The complete transcript of that remarkable interview is included in the book, revealing Bukowski to be frank and sometimes shocking. In lengthy and productive sessions, she discovered a man both the same and different than his published works. Surrounding the interview is a generous helping of comment, critique, and warmly worded appraisal.

Conversations with Capote Lawrence Grobel, 2015-06-02 The iconic author of In Cold Blood and Breakfast at Tiffany's comes to life in Conversations with Capote, written by veteran interviewer Lawrence Grobel. Truman Capote knew from the age of eleven that he wanted to be a writer, and was published by his early twenties. He went on to pen some of the most beloved plays, novels, and short stories in twentieth century literature. Capote's work, along with his flamboyant and charismatic personality, made him a beloved literary and cultural legend. In this compelling book, Capote speaks candidly about his tumultuous childhood and early fame, his bouts with drugs and alcohol, his romantic relationships, and his work. He also shares his pointed thoughts on some of the most well known figures of our time, including Jacqueline Onassis, J.D. Salinger, Norman Mailer, Tennessee Williams, Elizabeth Taylor, and Marilyn Monroe. This definitive, in-depth interview is a compelling read and a must-have for all fans of Capote's work.

Big Stony Howard T. Walden, II, 1993 This is a collection of wistful, humorous stories about fishing in New England. It combines coming of age stories with the experiences of well lived men to provide a complete portrait of the best New England fishermen have to offer in the early twentieth century. Big Stony is one of two books written for The Derrydale Press by Howard T. Walden, II. Bound in blue bonded leather with gold stamping and a four-color inset of three trout and a creel on the front cover with gold gilded pages.

The Shattered Room and Other Tales of Horror [by] Howard Phillips Lovecraft,August Derleth,1974

Sonny Liston Was a Friend of Mine Thom Jones,2009-11-29 The author's world encompasses dilapidated fight arenas, state mental hospitals & chaotic emergency rooms. The inhabitants are his brilliantly etched characters, who battle desperately against fate in a game of life they cannot win but dare not lose. As we approach the end of the century & the millennium, no one writes better or more vividly than Jones does about the personal, private apocalypses we all face in our darkest moments. In one story, a Vietnam vet, a Recon Marine, swims alone across the English Channel, the Straits of Gibraltar, & the Bosphorus to maintain the edge that kept him alive in wartime - & that is all he now has left. In another, a brilliant doctor verges on a breakdown. In the title story, a young amateur fighter stoically endures repetitive beatings because he knows the world of boxing shields & protects him from the even crueller world outside of the ring. A number of these stories have appeared in different forms in the New Yorker, Playboy, & Esquire.
