Wetlands Committee on Characterization of Wetlands, Commission on Geosciences, Environment and Resources, Division on Earth and Life Studies, National Research Council, 1995-09-20 Wetlands has become a hot word in the current environmental debate. But what does it signify? In 1991, proposed changes in the legal definitions of wetlands stirred controversy and focused attention on the scientific and economic aspects of their management. This volume explores how to define wetlands. The committee--whose members were drawn from academia, government, business, and the environmental community--builds a rational, scientific basis for delineating wetlands in the landscape and offers recommendations for further action. Wetlands also discusses the diverse hydrological and ecological functions of wetlands, and makes recommendations concerning so-called controversial areas such as permafrost wetlands, riparian ecosystems, irregularly flooded sites, and agricultural wetlands. It presents criteria for identifying wetlands and explores the problems of applying those criteria when there are seasonal changes in water levels. This comprehensive and practical volume will be of interest to environmental scientists and advocates, hydrologists, policymakers, regulators, faculty, researchers, and students of environmental studies.

My Brother Jamaica Kincaid, 1998-11-09 Jamaica Kincaid's brother Devon Drew died of AIDS on January 19, 1996, at the age of thirty-three. Kincaid's incantatory, poetic, and often shockingly frank recounting of her brother's life and death is also a story of her family on the island of Antigua, a constellation centered on the powerful, sometimes threatening figure of the writer's mother. My Brother is an unblinking record of a life that ended too early, and it speaks volumes about the difficult truths at the heart of all families. My Brother is a 1997 National Book Award Finalist for Nonfiction.

La Castidad ¿Posible? Miguel Fuentes, 2017-06-15 Durante muchas décadas los grandes errores sobre este tema han venido relacionándose con S. Freud; como si él tuviese la culpa de todos los enredos en este ámbito. Y no hay duda de que debe caberle una gran parte de la responsabilidad en la sexualización (es decir, genitalización) de la cultura contemporánea. Pero Freud también fue parte de un tiempo y un movimiento que quería prestar oídos a doctrinas como la suya. La culpa no es toda del predicador, aunque lleve la mayor parte; si tanto falló el discernimiento de sus oyentes, por algo habrá sido. Considero que Freud enseñó lo que muchos querían oír, y que el mundo occidental venía pudriéndose de mucho antes; el célebre psiquiatra aportó el catalizador que aceleró el proceso. Algo semejante ocurre en nuestro tiempo, caldo de cultivo de las más trastornadas doctrinas... Hoy los jóvenes quedarían atolondrados, fastidiados y molestos si alguien intenta hablarles de castidad o pureza. ¡No son tiempos, estos, de zonceras! Es la virtud exiliada.

The Embodied Image Juhani Pallasmaa, 2011-05-16 The Embodied Image: Imagination and Imagery in Architecture Juhani Pallasmaa All artistic and architectural effects are evoked, mediated and experienced through poeticised images. These images are embodied and lived experiences that take place in 'the flesh of the world', becoming part of us, at the same time that we unconsciously project aspects of ourselves on to a conceived space, object or event. Artistic images have a life and reality of their own and they develop through unexpected associations rather than rational and causal logic. Images are usually thought of as retinal pictures but profound poetic images are multi-sensory and they address us in an embodied and emotive manner. Architecture is usually analysed and taught as a discipline that articulates space and geometry, but the mental impact of architecture arises significantly from its image quality that integrates the various aspects and dimensions of experience into a singular, internalised and remembered entity. The material reality is fused with our mental and imaginative realm. The book is organised into five main parts that look at in turn: the image in contemporary culture; language, thought and the image; the many faces of the image; the poetic image; and finally the architectural image. The Embodied Image is illustrated with over sixty images in pairs, which are diverse in subject. They range from scientific images to historic artistic and architectural masterpieces. Artworks span Michelangelo and Vermeer to Gordon Matta-Clark and architecture takes in Modern Masters such as Mies van der Rohe, Le Corbusier and Alvar Aalto, as well as significant contemporary works by Steven Holl and Daniel Libeskind.

Sleeping with Bread Dennis Linn, Sheila Fabricant Linn, Matthew Linn, 1995 The Linns' simplification of the Ignatian examination of conscience is a way to find daily direction, experience emotional and spiritual growth and grow closer to both God and one's inner self.
