Gastrointestinal Emergencies Autumn Graham,David J. Carlberg,2019-02-05 This book answers key questions asked by emergency clinicians faced with complex gastrointestinal and abdominal pain presentations. Instead of a traditional format that includes epidemiology, pathophysiology, diagnosis, and treatment options, this book takes an approach that mirrors the way clinicians interact with patients - by asking and answering specific clinical care questions. The book is organized into sections by presentation - gastrointestinal bleeding, for example - each of which contains chapters on specific questions, such as "What is the best clinical risk score for low risk GIB patients?" Each clinical question comes with a detailed, evidence-based response and a summary that gives best practices, recommendations, and references. Additionally, at the end of each section is a chapter titled "Expert Corner," which asks the same clinical questions to a surgical or gastrointestinal specialist and includes key pearls these experts have for emergency medicine practitioners. Gastrointestinal Emergencies: Evidence-Based Answers to Key Clinical Questions is an essential guide for emergency medicine physicians, residents, and medical students who want to review and improve their care of acute gastrointestinal emergencies.

Smog Sirens in the Capital Kevin Karmalade, 2019-04-17 Hail Regina is a serialized social satire of, 'political and religious romp', set in the near future (2025-30). It is family-friendly and has a vintage quality to its writing style. Episode One has a fore-note, 'After the Crash...' and a comical 'prelude' scene from a gala-ball, as readers transition between 2025 and 2027 scenes this opening is set in. We learn of the aftermath of the great economic crash. Its devastation pervades throughout the congregation of states. Those citizens who caused the crash, are rumoured to have been 'chastised' underground in the flagellation chambers of St. Dandy's Cathedral. They have disappeared, whilst being interned in the Thallium Meatport. No inferior or superior citizen has been spared from the crash. In the wake of recovery, the Secular Party has devised an inspiration for the state. The party will reclaim the dilapidated docklands, spread along the waterfront of the Capital. Whilst the atomic test program remains on track, the party will bring hope to the citizens, as they are called upon to make their state—'great again'. Atop of Constitution Hill, the statue of the Holy Mother Regina—gushes out the sacred waters of its fountain. Angelic beings are sighted gravitating around Her, whilst inexplicable horn-like sounds are heard—up in the skies and beyond the mountains. The 'Wheel of Life' on Hierophant Square, makes its a natural forward motion. It signals to the citizens that life in the Capital and the Ganglands is moving onto its next cycle, as it always has done. With a radical decline in pregnancy and births, the children of poor inferior-citizens are harvested. They are ferried up river under the sweeping arch of the Golden Dawn bridge—to commence a new life in the State Distribution Bureau. Members of the Secular Party will adopt many of them. But they will not remember their birth parents. Trained Labradors, befriend them with doses of unconditional love—whilst they wait to be received by their new parents. The future generation of members of the Secular Party has thus been secured. Episode One The episode-chapter opens to the sounds of smog sirens and Radio Good Shepherd 91.8FM playing in the background. Dirk van Ritter is seated on the floor of his tenement, rummaging through the plans for the new Royal Docklands Centre precinct, to be built on the waterfront. We follow Dirk's quest for elevation in the civil service, which is controlled by the ruling oligarchs of the Secular Party. Dirk's informal promotion from a 'low-inferior' serving as a souvenir and information assistant, on the counter of the Tourism Office, will run parallel to the construction of the Docklands Centre, which unveils during Season's 2 and 3. He dreams of one day being the Predendary of the new Centre, if it can survive the politics surrounding the construction of the docklands precincts. Major stylistic influences upon this work go back to dystopian classics like, The 'Iron Heel' by Jack London (1907), 'We' by Yevgeny Zamyatin (1920), 'Brave New World' by Aldous Huxley (1932) and Ray Bradbury's, 'Fahrenheit 451' (1953). The futurist setting of the series - was partly influenced by the London Docklands re-development. Commenced in 1981, it created a vast urban renewal program along the London waterfront. The city of London and docklands provided the initial components of imagery - to sketch the location, the politics and theatrical characters, which gradually formed within in the futurist dystopia -that the story ultimately inhabited. The Hail Regina novella series, may be read at a simple, literal level. A story about a low inferior who quests for a better life; the delusions and hurdles to be overcome along the way. On a secondary, more abstract level, it touches upon some of the flaws and foibles of the members of high-society who run the politics of state and church.

Reducing Environmental Cancer Risk Suzanne H. Reuben,2010-10 Though overall cancer incidence and mortality have continued to decline in recent years, cancer continues to devastate the lives of far too many Americans. In 2009 alone, 1.5 million American men, women, and children were diagnosed with cancer, and 562,000 died from the disease. There is a growing body of evidence linking environmental exposures to cancer. The Pres. Cancer Panel dedicated its 2008-2009 activities to examining the impact of environmental factors on cancer risk. The Panel considered industrial, occupational, and agricultural exposures as well as exposures related to medical practice, military activities, modern lifestyles, and natural sources. This report presents the Panel's recommend. to mitigate or eliminate these barriers. Illus.

Arden Plays: 1 John Arden,2014-07-17 'The modern English theatre has had its poets and it has had its dramatists but in John Arden it has acquired its first dramatic poet since - well, let's be rash - the days of Shakespeare.' - Sunday Times. The Waters of Babylon: 'This wild, acidly funny and oddly tragic story of London low-life... reveals Arden's tough linguistic freedom and the free-wheeling ease with which he switches from prose to verse and back again' Sunday Times Live Like Pigs: 'Thrilling theatre... a rumbustious delight, outrageously funny, powerfully dramatic and, when you least expect it, genuinely moving... a modern classic' Daily Telegraph The Happy Haven (written with Margaretta D'Arcy): 'This rare and excellent revival perfectly reflects the play's bizarre atmosphere, its potent mixture of farcical prose, rhymed poetry, its marked avoidance of schematic moral codes' Time Out Serjeant Musgrave's Dance: 'A modern classic... a white-hot piece of work... Since its first appearance in 1959, the play has advanced towards us as if in a slow prophetic march' The Times Also included in the volume is When is a Door not a Door?, a one-act 'industrial episode'.
